2015 Urban Ranchers Day Camp for hands-on learning of farm animals

Registration is now open for children ages 8-13, experience life on the farm with real livestock

Littleton, Colo. – A fun-filled adventure this summer awaits at the Arapahoe County Fairgrounds where a select group of children, ages 8-13, will have the unique opportunity to learn how to care for, handle and raise farm animals, such as goats, sheep, chickens, cows, horses and llamas.

Sign up for the 2015 Urban Ranchers Day Camp and children will go beyond the textbook and discover the thrill of caring for animals and experience the best parts of ranch living.

Organized by the Colorado State University Extension Program of Arapahoe County, this year's Camp will be held 8 a.m. – noon, July 6 – 9 at the County Fairgrounds 25690 E. Quincy Ave., Aurora.

Camp counselors will lead daily games and projects that helps explore where our food comes from. Activities also will include crafts and a show-n-tell for family and friends.

Registration is $100 per child and space is limited. Registration includes a T-shirt, snacks, all activities, awards and the Show Cook-out on the last day of camp.
