On Jan. 16, Arapahoe County celebrates grand opening of new centralized court security entrance connecting Courthouse I and II

What: Arapahoe County will celebrate the grand opening of the new centralized security entrance – connecting the lobbies of Courthouses I and II at the Arapahoe County Justice Center, 7325 S. Potomac St., Centennial.

Completion of the centralized entrance is part of a multi-phase Arapahoe County project that began in 2005 to meet the needs of the courts without increasing taxes.

Who: Arapahoe County Commissioners Nancy Doty, Nancy Sharpe, Rod Bockenfeld, Nancy Jackson and Bill Holen will join 18th Judicial District Chief Judge William Sylvester and Undersheriff Dave Walcher to celebrate the grand opening of the new centralized entrance to the Arapahoe County Justice Center.

In addition, the Arapahoe County Sheriff's Office Honor Guard will present and raise the United States, Colorado and Arapahoe County flags, which will fly for the first time since the construction project began in May 2013.

When: The event begins 3 p.m., Jan. 16. The ceremony will begin at 3:20 p.m. The new centralized entrance opens to the public Jan. 21.
