“The eastern plains are very important to us and we want to provide the right service to our veterans and go to them when we can,” said Arapahoe County Commissioner Rod Bockenfeld, who represents District 3, which includes eastern Arapahoe County. “We do everything we can to spend quality time with each individual who seek our assistance.”

There is no fee for the services. Officers will have resources available including pamphlets and applications veterans and their families will need to get the process started.
