Arapahoe County Performance Report to Citizens available May 14
The 2014 report is available in Denver Post, local community newspapers and County buildings starting in May

LITTLETON, CO --- Beginning May 14, nearly 150,000 Arapahoe County households will receive a copy of the 2014 Annual Performance Report in their local newspaper.

Every year, Arapahoe County produces a report to update citizens on the County's accomplishments and performance for the past year. The 2014 Annual Report, which is produced on newsprint and offered electronically on the County's website, provides an overview of the wide range of programs and services offered by Colorado's third largest county.

The report chronicles the County's history as Colorado's first county, provides an overview of the County's budget and outlines our Align Arapahoe accomplishments in 2014.

Residents also will find a tear-out page of phone numbers, email and web addresses to connect them to Arapahoe County. Scan the QR code on the cover of the annual report or within this news release to receive a digital copy via your tablet or smartphone.

"Align Arapahoe is key to Arapahoe County's performance as it is our path to continuous improvement, accountability and transparency," said Commissioner Nancy Sharpe, who serves as Board Chair. "Throughout the pages of our 2014 Annual Performance Report, you will see an overview of our Align Arapahoe priorities, initiatives, programs and services and how we are striving to provide exceptional, efficient and cost-effective government services to the citizens of Arapahoe County."

Align Arapahoe is defined by three top goals: Service First, Fiscal Responsibility and Quality of Life, which are outlined in the report. These are the pillars of the County's Performance Management Strategy that drive our commitment to provide quality services to benefit citizens, employees and the business community.

Arapahoe County produces its annual report in a newspaper format because it is the most affordable and efficient manner to get this information in the hands of citizens.

Copies of the annual performance report will be available in the May 14 editions of the Denver Post, Aurora Sentinel and Buckley Guardian and in the May 17 Sunday Select edition of the Denver Post. The report also will be distributed in the Centennial Citizen, Englewood Herald, Glendale Cherry Creek Chronicle, I-70 Scout, Littleton Independent and The Villager Newspaper.

Citizens also can find copies in Arapahoe County government locations, and a .pdf version of the report is available through our website under the About tab at www.arapahoegov.com. If you would like a copy mailed to you, contact Communication Services Coordinator Caroline Hogan at 303-795-5467 or by email at chogan@arapahoegov.com.
