24-72-305.5 Access to records – denial by custodian – use of records to obtain information for solicitation. Records of official actions and criminal justice records and the names, addresses, telephone numbers, and other information in such records shall not be used by any person for the purpose of soliciting business for pecuniary gain. The official custodian shall deny any person access to records of official actions and criminal justice records unless such person signs a statement which affirms that such records shall not be used for the direct solicitation of business for pecuniary gain.

24-72-306 Criminal justice agencies may assess reasonable fees, not to exceed actual costs, including but not limited to personnel and equipment, for the search, retrieval, and redaction of criminal justice records and may waive fees at their discretion. In addition, agencies may charge a fee not to exceed $0.25 per standard page for a copy of a criminal justice record. Where fees for certified copies or other copies, printouts, or photographs of such records are specifically prescribed by law, such specific fees shall apply.

Any records custodian may require and collect a 50% advance deposit of estimated research, retrieval and copy fees for public records requests that will require significant staff time, and resources to complete. A records custodian may require and collect 100% advance deposit of estimated research, retrieval and copy fees for public records requests from any person who has made a previous retrieval request and not paid or not come in to view the requested information.
