The image shows a Google Maps interface. At the top, there are navigation icons (back, forward, home, location) and a search bar containing "13101 Broncos Parkway, Centennial, CO". To the right of the search bar are buttons for "Search Maps" and "Show search options". Below the search bar, there are map controls including a compass, a vertical zoom slider, and a horizontal zoom slider. The map itself shows a street grid with major roads highlighted in yellow. A red pin is placed on the location of the Administration Building. In the top right corner of the map area, there are buttons for "Traffic", "More...", "Map", "Satellite", and "Terrain". At the bottom of the map, there is a scale bar (1 km), a copyright notice "©2009 Google - Map data ©2009 Tele Atlas", and a "Terms of Use" link. The bottom left corner has a "Done" button, and the bottom right corner has an "Internet" icon and a zoom level indicator set to 100%.
